

I am horrified that the FCC has voted in favor of the corporate agenda instead of the will of the people. The airwaves belong to US, not to Rupert Murdoch and the Clear Channel. Your vote will effectively gut American cultural and political life by narrowing the bandwidth to represent the views of the very wealthy and the very conservative. For shame!